this is important because the intestinal yeast infection can cause autoimmune disease that has similar symptoms continuously, indicating that it is probably the primary cause of fibromyalgia.

therefore, it must be the case that some if not all of that corpus was rewritten to make it consistent with christian systems of thought, ideology etc.

parents are required to disclose personal information, particularly family income, and that has been a stumbling block.