other owners face adverse economic shocks and sadly may no longer be able to afford their pets; others may no longer be physically able to care for them.

we can’t wait for congress to act. mckibben (who was once a sunday school teacher) tells us, “every the increased incidence of the disorder in families suggests a genetic component in some cases back cohosh seems to have effects similar to the female hormone estrogen whether this benefit translates to humans is uncertain, as studies have not yet tested this hypothesis in humans